Show Synopsis

In this series we follow internationally acclaimed travel photographer Dan Avila and his life through the lens as he travels to all corners of the globe capturing moments in time that will never be captured again.

Shooting images at locations that are on most people's bucket lists meeting some amazing people along the way. In most cases he only has a limited time to get in get the shot and get out that means getting secret spots from the locals, pushing hard in some crazy conditions and doing everything possible to get those magic shots that capture the imagination.

It all adds to the challenge and it's the uncertainty and risk that fuels his chase for great images.
